POSITIVE PROFIT ALERT

This announcement is made by the Company pursuant to Rule 13.09 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”).

The board of directors (the “Board”) of Anton Oilfield Services Group (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) wishes to inform the shareholders of the Company and potential investors that based on its preliminary review of the latest management accounts of the Group, it is expected that the consolidated profit of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2010 will increase significantly as compared with the result of the Company in 2009. Such increase is mainly attributable to the recovery of the industry following the global financial crisis, the successful marketing of new technologies developed by the Group, and the higher proportionate revenue for technical services, which increased the revenue and overall level of profit margin of the Group.

As the Company is still preparing and finalizing its audited consolidated accounts for the year ended 31 December 2010, the information contained in this announcement is only based on the preliminary review by the Company’s management and is not based on any figures or information that has been audited or reviewed by the auditors or the audit committee of the Company. Shareholders and potential investors are advised to read carefully the final results announcement of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2010 which is expected to be published before the end of March 2011.

The information contained in this announcement is only the preliminary estimates of the Company and has not been audited by its auditors. Shareholders of the Company and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.

By order of the Board of
Anton Oilfield Services Group
