

Oilfield Operation and Maintenance Management Services

Anton Oilfield Operation and Maintenance Management Services primarily consist of engineering project contracting, commissioning, operation and maintenance of Oil & Gas field surface facilities and public facilities. Anton is committed to providing safe, economical, efficient and high-quality integrated oilfield management services, surface facilities operation and management services, preventive maintenance and corrective maintenance management services with standardized team management, international service team, high standard QHSE requirements, and professional technical services.

Service Capability

- With international technical service qualification and standard management system, which has been certified by ISO9001, ISO14001, OHSAS18001, ASME and API certification, and has global service capabilities.
- Standard regulations of oil field station operation and engineering maintenance.
- International, multi-language, high-quality specialized technology and management team.
- Sophisticated training system for operation and maintenance personnel of oil field station.
- Global resources integration capability, with rich resources of oilfield surface equipment manufacturers.
- One-step inspection and maintenance service.
- 24x7 quickly response.

Scope of Services

- Field Surface Facility (FSF) Management, including oil, gas and water treatment system and power system.
- Oilfield surface facilities maintenance and upgrading services, including static equipment, rotating equipment, oil and gas pipelines, automation meters and power facilities.
- EPCC service for small-scale oilfield surface facilities.

Service Tracking Records

- Serving clients include Petro China, Sinopec, CNOOC, Shell, Lukoil, Petronas, Gazprom and Iraqi National Oil Company. Our service performance has won good reputation from the clients.
- Safe and continuous operation & maintenance services exceed 8,000 days which has been praised and thanked by clients for more than 70 times.
- Completing over one hundred projects such as inspection and maintenance of production facilities inside and outside of the CPF station, cleaning services for storage tanks and pressure vessels, corrosion prevention, etc., and handled over 30 production emergencies, which effectively ensured safe production.

