

Engineering Equipment Leasing Service

It provides comprehensive drilling tools, equipment, operation and maintenance services throughout the whole process and overall solutions for oilfield exploration and development, helps customers achieve asset-light operations, improves asset efficiency, and reduces costs.

Service Content

Service Capabilities

- It has more than 120,000 drilling tools of various kinds and rich resources and can provide integrated drill string general contracting services quickly.
- It has nearly 500 sets of all kinds of engineering equipment and strong ability for industry resource integration, mobilization and service assurance.
- It has a number of domestic and foreign service support bases and a fast response global service support system.

Service Performance

- In 1999, the Company launched the drilling tool leasing business, and it is the first professional company to provide leasing services of drilling tools in China.
- The Company has leased more than 1.1 million drilling tools and 400 sets of engineering equipment and served more than 100 customers.

