

Asset Management Services

The asset management services cover four aspects, i.e. financial leasing service, asset value-added service, oil and gas asset sharing platform and support guarantee service. With a mature and efficient service support system and professional technical service capabilities, we provide customers with high-quality and efficient resource services to help them improve their asset utilization efficiency and maximize the asset benefits.

Service Content

Service Capabilities

- It is licensed for financial leasing and with an experienced team of financial leasing experts.
- It can provide comprehensive services at multiple bases around the world.
- All-scenario independent online platform: Oil and gas asset public website of Anton and WeChat applets.

官方网址: www.dajia-oil.com

